THE GREAT CONFLICT IS OVER.

"MUG" SEVER'S DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR THE LEGISLATURE THE WINNER.

AND THE NEW CONSTITUTION ENDORSED BY AN OVERWHELMING MAJORITY.

The People's Party Not In It.

A BIG VOTE POLLED AND A QUIET ELECTION ALL OVER THE COUNTY.

Very Full Returns from All Parts of the County.

The election in this county was upon the whole a very quiet affair. Since the late disturbance of the day passed of very peacefully and it was free from the usual course of pulling and hauling about the polls. There was very little money used and as a consequence the disorderly element experienced a very dull time. There were plenty of them and they stood around waiting for a bid, but it never came. The leaders and the men that do the work at the polls had no "election booby," so it was a dull day for the fellow that goes for the man that "puts up the stuff."

As a general thing, the leading Republicans took no part. Many refrained from voting at all between the candidates for Representative and some even voted for Mr. Severs. A large number, however, avowed the People's Party candidate, but yesterday's revolutions make it evident the Republican party will not face the third party here, so to the extent of making coalition a success. We opine all achievements will fall, if attempted in the future. This seems to have been the case especially at Cloverport and Hardinsburg, as indicated by the large majorities Severs obtained at these places. The handsome majority obtained by Brown and the State ticket shows that Cloverport is largely and reliably Democratic. The People's Party state ticket got but few votes.

From what we hear of Dr. Harney's extravagant expectations, he must be a surprised man, and by this lesson he learned that the wild vagaries he preached won't go down the people here, especially county notwithstanding they were propped up by the adventitious circumstances of partnership allying itself with his race to a considerable degree. Sticking alone, they had no support with talking alone.

Democracy strayed from the fold. We are sorry for the misguided boys, but we should forget and forgive, and repeat, as they must be, we will take them back. Come back home, boys! You'll feel better and do better at home than forging in strange pastures grown up with wild grass and ill weeds. We are not mad at you. Your own consciences will whip you enough, so we will "spare the rod" this time. It is "human to err, divine to forgive."

But while some erred, yet there were "true blues" all along the line. And they brought a good light. Men like Tom Toney, Jim Hamilton, Bill Bauser, Jim Lay, Carl Richardson were every where. They are known to the party and their work appreciated. But why add more? The victory is won, and we feel good.

The following is the vote of this county by precincts:

Cloverport Precinct No. 1.—For Governor, Brown 87, Wood 120, Bevin 43, Winlow 2. For Representative, Severs 98, Harne 51, For Survevor, Bevin 119, July 8. For Coroner, Temple 101, Davis 17. For Constable, B. H. Wilson 78. For the New Constitution, 112, Against 303. Cloverport Precinct No. 2.—For Governor, Brown 288, Wood 103, Bevin 43. For Representative, Severs 282, Harne 100. For Survevor, Bevin 310, July 37. For Coroner, Temple 74, Davis 22. For Constable, Wilson 282. For the Constitution 267, Against 116. Of the two precincts 117, Severs 238, Bevin 239, Temple 344, Wilson's 309, for the Constitution 303. Bevin's 309, for the Constitution 303. Cloverport, For Governor, Brown 114, Wood 138, Bevin 113, Representative, Severs 120, Harne 80, Survevor, Bevin 106, July 63. Coroner, Davis 28. For the Constitution, 289, Against 22. Justice of Peace, Parson 97, Mercer 74. Planter's Hall.—For Governor, Brown 30, Wood 4, Bevin 6. For Representative, Severs 25, Harne 10. Justice of Peace, Mercer 6, Parson 52. For Constitution, 25, against 13. Union Star.—For Governor, Brown 103, Wood 35, Bevin 113. Representative, Severs 108, Harne 141. For Constitution, 204, against 45. Moxleyville.—For Governor, Brown 75, Wood 25, Bevin 10. For Representative, Severs 75, Harne 29. For Survevor, Bevin 61, July 25. For Constitution, 70, against 29. Webster.—For Governor, Brown's majority 71. Severs 81. Constitution 19. Bevin's 19. For Governor, Brown 50, Wood 45, Bevin 80. For Representative, Severs 50, Harne 138. For Survevor, Bevin 61, July 102. Coroner,

Table with 2 columns: Candidate and Votes. Includes names like Cloverport, Harne, Severs, and vote counts.

Severs majority over Harne 203.

Notes.

Thunders had a big day. There was a big vote polled.

A 40 cent and a quiet one. Jackson Jim got in his work.

Big Banney is a good worker. Ceder gave Harne 28 majority.

Chen Mills gave Harne 27 majority. Johnsonville gave Harne 81 majority.

McNabule gave Harne 79 majority. Seversport gave Harne 3 majority.

A Big Spring, Severs received 43 majority.

It looks like Henry Temple is our Coroner.

Lager Pierce says it was a dull day for him.

There were over 700 votes polled in the precinct.

Harne's speech last him 50 votes in this precinct.

The Republicans scratched Harne pretty generally.

Thos. Toney was out as usual by daylight getting in his work.

Dr. Harne can now stay at home, make pills and saw wood.

Frank A. Bevin is the County Survevor by a handsome majority.

Taylor, the Democratic nominee in Harne, was elected by a majority of less than 25.

Pettit and Birkhead, Alliance candidates for the Legislature in Davies, were elected by small majorities.

Leonard Ocho has the name of sending in the nicest, cleanest and most correct poll book that ever went into the clerk's office at Hardinsburg.

Manager Capt. George Mercer is a little disgraced, no doubt, but still in good shape. There is lots of good Democracy in the Captain yet, and while there is life there is hope.

The New Constitution, well now, didn't die in a hop,ing. We want it distinctly understood that the business end of the News is now and ever will be for that instrument.

Cap. Jack Gross as usual was in it. He took the situation last Thursday on his return from the mountains and saw that something must be done and he did it. He put the boys in line, gave them a few pointers and the victory followed.

Confirmed.

The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs a few years ago has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers the California Fig Syrup Company.

Lines Dedicated.

To Mr. R. S. Perryville, Tennessee.
The question that you ask me,
Do I ever think of thee?
He started from those memory bells.
That chime so sweet for me;
Their music strikes the lonesome chord
Of heart and soul and tears;
Which brings back from memory
Those happy days with thee.
For thou art still as dear to me
Thou years have come and gone,
As when we used to sing and play
In dear old Tennessee,
Those happy, happy days,
Oh, will they never return
And bring me back my flower,
The fairest in meadow's eye.
I think of thee at twilight hours
When thy light shines bright,
Across the bright and blossoming
To kiss the flowers good night.
And when the shadows lengthen,
And evening shadows creep,
I think of thee and breathe a sigh
For thou art ever near.
At noon bright when my weary eyes
Are closed with hopes of sleep,
Fond memory brings back happy days
And my soul will gladly leave my bed
For thou art dearer now by far
Than all the world is here.
Let come what will, I'll not forget,
I'll think of thee, I'll think of thee.
Moseleyville, Ky., July 26, 1901.

A Wonder Worker.

Mr. Frank Hoffman, a young man of Burlington, Ohio, states that he had been under the care of two prominent physicians, and used their treatment until he was not able to get around. They pronounced his case to be Consumption and Incurable. He was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and at that time was not able to walk across the street without resting. He found, before he had used the medicine, that he was much better; he continued to use it and is today enjoying good health. If you have any Throat, Lung or Chest trouble try it. We guarantee satisfaction. Trial bottle free at G. W. Short's Drugstore.

Obedience.

"And, mamma," sobbed the unhappy wife, "he threw his slippers across the room and told me to go to the devil!"
"You did right my poor dear child, to come straight home to me," N. Y. Sun.

High Wheat Means High Bread.

The Farmers' Alliance has a plan for raising the price of wheat a dollar a bushel by the carrying out of the plan would involve a corresponding rise in the price of the bread of the working masses, whose help is sought by the Alliance. At the same time, the members of the Farmers' Alliance desire to get the price of all the manufactured goods which they need down to the lowest notch, but this course would mean low wages for the factory hands, whose assistance they are anxious to get. N. Y. Sun.

Can't Sleep Nights.

Is the complaint of thousands suffering from Asthma, Consumption, Coughs, etc. Did you ever try Dr. Acker's English Balm? It is the best preparation known for all Lung troubles. Sold on a positive guarantee at 25c. and 50c. by G. W. Short, Cloverport, Ky., and Witt & Menor, Harlinsburg, Ky.

Antiquity of Playing Cards.

The game of cards was first played in the east, and seems to have had a military origin. Cards were introduced from Asia into Europe at the time of the Crusades, and were first used by mercenaries to foretell fortunes. They soon became a popular amusement in the south of Europe, where the Saracens and Moors taught the people how to use them, and card playing spread to all parts of the continent. The state records of Germany mention the fact that Randalph I, in 1195, was fond of the game and played with his courtiers.

After the invention of paper, the manufacture of cards became extensive, but declined somewhat as card playing was forbidden by several of the German states and by the English government on account of the supposed immoral tendency. Before the era of paper, cards in the Orient were made of ivory, paper and canvas, but in frequency the precious material, and quite comely of wood. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Perfect action and perfect health result from the use of DeWitt's Little Early Riders, a perfect little pill. Sold by G. W. Short.

A Desperate Fight Made by One Poor Wretch Against His Awful Doom.

PARIS, July 27.—There and young Berland, the Courleville murderer, was placed at 5 o'clock this morning in the Place de la Roquette. The 19 at the guillotine was an exciting and horrible one. Berland fought the prison guards and the executioner's assistants like a demon, pouncing, tearing and scratching them every foot of the way from the condemned cell to where the shadow of the great knife fell upon the struggling group. Even after the miserable wretch had been forced into a recumbent position he made furious efforts to break away. The untold efforts of three assistants were necessary to hold the young murderer still long enough to permit the executioner doing his duty. When the blade finally passed downward it left so thick of the world one who left it shuddering, cursing and struggling to the last. Dore submitted quietly to his fate.

An enormous crowd of people had gathered last night and very early this morning on the famous Place de la Roquette, where all Paris executions by guillotine take place. The man about town and woman about town were there in force, regardless of the fact that they had been anxiously waiting for the execution for a week past, and that they had haunted the neighborhood of the gloomy old prison morning after morning, daily expecting the "last of blood" to which they had invited themselves. The voyons and the gamins, the ecote and the grisette were there in force, filling the balconies, gables and the eaves of the neighborhood with their bawling songs and vile orgies. Three hundred policemen on foot, 250 infantrymen and 100 mounted officers surrounded the guillotine.

Dore, when he was aroused from his stupor, looked at the scene at an early hour this morning, rubbed his eyes, howled at his visitors, and then, guessing the object of their coming, he repeated into a state of stolid indifference, and without any outward appearance to be utterly indifferent as to what was taking place. He dressed himself calmly and, under the circumstances, appeared to have taken a week past, and that they had haunted the neighborhood of the gloomy old prison morning after morning, daily expecting the "last of blood" to which they had invited themselves. ## WHEAT. (And in its providence has called to broader fields and more extended labor, our dear friend, fellow teacher in our M. K. Church South, Sabbath school, our sister in Christ, our dearly loved Miss Anna R. Bennett. Be it.

Rooted 1st. That as a school, we tender our warmest thanks for her faithful-filled labor in our ranks years past; that she be assured of our earnest love and constant prayers for her in her missionary work at Laredo, New Mexico; of our trust in her God and our God that he will give her soul for her life, and that she as she indeed goes forth weeping, bearing precious seed, she may in the great day "come with rejoicing, bringing her sheaves with her." May her Master's words "according to thy faith be it unto thee" be spoken to her that her crown, when she casts it at his feet, will gladden with stars from her Handmaiden's crown, and with many gleamed in Mexico.

Rooted 2nd. That our Secretary be instructed to give to Miss Anna a copy of these resolutions, to send a copy to our town paper, The Republic, and to the BRECKENRIDGE NEWS for insertion in their columns, and that they be placed on record in our Sunday school minutes.

Respectfully submitted,
Miss T. C. Daniel,

Is Life Worth Living?
Not only through the world a despondent. Dr. Acker's Pepsin Tablets are a positive cure for the worst forms of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Flatulency and Constipation. Guaranteed and sold by G. W. Short, Cloverport, Ky., and Witt & Menor, Harlinsburg, Ky.

Sea Serpents.
Mr. Garman, in a lecture before the Boston Society of Natural History, gave an interesting synopsis of sea snakes or sea serpents, besides exhibiting a specimen of the real serpent of the sea. The professor first gave an historical resume of the earlier antiquity of the sea serpent, and then proceeded to the modern sea serpent, which he said to be the time of Postopidipus and reviewing it down to date. Further on in his lecture he gave figures of some of the queer marine monsters which have from time to time frightened sailors and others alike; to death, softly drawing each of the figures on a lantern specially provided for the occasion.

Mr. Garman also spoke of a most remarkable recent discovery which has brought to light a species of shark generally believed to have become extinct many thousands of years ago, the remains of the animal being now found in the rocks of the Devonian system. He is of the opinion that this recently discovered sea tiger is the original of more than one blood curdling sea serpent story. The length and general outline of this should be to a fish shark as such as to cause one to suspect a born naturalist to take "it" as an example of a specimen which would, of course, be mentioned by viewing a dorsal exposure of the figure on a lantern specially provided for the occasion.

Too Great a Surprise.
What's the matter? asked the policeman, pushing through the crowd that had gathered about a man in a fit. "He—he asked me to—have some ice cream," sobbed a girl, "and—and I told him no!"—N. Y. Herald.

Investigate their merits. DeWitt's Little Early Riders don't gripe, cause no pain, which accounts for their popularity. It is a medicine that would not run a drug store without these little pills.

Not a Case in Point.

"I don't know about it, but I usually take two to get 'em open!"—N. Y. Herald.

A trial will convince the most skeptical that "G. C. C. Certain Cough Cure" is the greatest remedy ever for the cure of Coughs and Fever.—Sold by J. W. Owen.

Drainage.
How few people realize the results of a neglected drain. A single clogged drain presents. No inconceivable changes are wrought by artificial drainage. Much of our water waste, instead of being lost through natural means, is carried away underground through our drains.

Holland has been, one might say, reclaimed from the sea. The country has been dyked out, and many parts of the country that were the bottom of the sea are now dry land. The lowlands have been reclaimed by means of levees and inundations. Commenced. Years ago there were along the lowlands of the Netherlands "drowned lands," subject to overflow and uninhabitable, covering an area larger than the state of New York. Many of these lands have been reclaimed by means of levees. Thus, by man's ingenuity, the surface, climate and general physical condition of the earth being changed.—New York Ledger.

We cannot afford to deceive you. Confidence is legotten by honesty. DeWitt's Little Early Riders are pills that cure constipation and sick headaches.—Sold by G. W. Short.
